Authorized to contract for advertising for this paper.

But advertisement of "Advertiser's Monthly Magazine" in this paper.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

To Hon. H. S. Brady, M. C. from this district, for numerous documents.

To Hon. A. J. Swan, Member of the House of Representatives from Vinton County, for numerous interesting and valuable documents.

Local items of interest will be thankfully received from our friends, at any time, from any part of this or adjoining countries.

Sir:—Merritt, of Newport, R. I., will accept our thanks for his New York, Boston, and Providence papers.

Ross Weston.—Bring all your rage to this office, where the highest market price will be paid for them.

Young CALVES wanted.—Any person having good calves from three weeks to two months old, for sale, will call at the office of this paper, and leave who wishes to purchase.

The time for making maple sugar is on hand, and the signs indicate that this will be a good season. Those having trees should improve this "golden time."

Hunters will take notice that the Game Law, enacted by the Ohio Legislature, relative to the killing of quail, pheasants, turkeys, &c., went into effect on the 1st inst.

The Legislature has passed an act authorizing councils of incorporated villages to appoint marshals, police, and other subordinate officers. This law will apply to McArthur.

They have organized a County Democrat Club for Muskingum county, at Zanesville. Col. W. H. Bell is President. The Club was addressed by Judge Thurman on Saturday night last.

HANSON BUMGARNER was executed at Marietta, O., on the 16th inst., for the murder of John T. Eubank. He protested his innocence as principal, but admitted knowledge of the crime.

The West Virginia Legislature has voted to remove the State capital to Morgantown, Monongahela country. This town is situated on the Monongahela river, two hundred and ninety-five miles northwest of Richmond.

"THE HEAVENLY CHERUBS."—We have for sale at this office the most superb steel line engravings of "The Heavenly Cherubs," from Raphael's "Statue Madonnas," which we invite everybody—especially the ladies—to call and see. The price is low.

The editor of the Portsmouth Republican thinks that the notice in this paper headed,
"Young Calves Wanted," looks suspicious, to say the least. If the Republican editor, afraid, could make it convenient to use better words, we think he would not discover so many objects that look suspicious, to say the least."

PARTICULAR Notice.—Those who prefer paying their subscriptions in any kind of country produce, or in wood or coal, are informed that they can do so, as we have made arrangements to receive the same at any time. Send us your name, and you will send you the Enquirer, and then you will be happy and can go on your way rejoicing."

The card of J. A. Monahan, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, at Hamden, in this country, will be found in to-day's paper. The Dr. has only resided in this county about two years; and, as he is well versed in his profession, he has a large practice in Hamden and vicinity. All his patients are skillfully treated, and kindly and honorably dealt with. Give him a call.

THE DAILY OHIO STATEMAN has been enlarged, and with its new heading, presents a beautiful appearance. The Statesman, now under the management of Hon. E. B. Ebelman, as editor, is among the best papers in the Union. It should receive that patronage that it now deserves.

The prospectus of the Statesman will be found in another part of this paper; and when our friends wish a good and reliable paper, we would advise them to read for the Statesman.

It was to have been held on Friday evening last, at McArthur, of the citizens interested in the construction of 3 miles of railroad from McArthur station, on the Marietta and Cincinnati railroad, to that town. We should suppose that there might be public spirit enough among the citizens to accomplish the wished-for object—if not, said by, McArthur.—Portsmouth Republican.

The meeting was held, and a large number of the best and most influential citizens in attendance. There is public spirit enough among the citizens of McArthur and vicinity to build three miles of railroad, and it will be built. Portsmouth, we think, would be greatly benefited if the road was completed to this place.
